

Rev. Dr. Lisa Fiddermon

Dr. Lisa Fiddermon is a native of Westbury, NY and Suffolk, VA, she has spent most of her adult life in the Washington, DC area with her husband Rev. Darrel Fiddermon and their 2 young adults, Sakile' (Sah-kee-lay) and Darrel Judah.

For a decade, Dr. Lisa has served as a Professional Chaplain for hospitals, college campuses, and workplaces as well as a Senior Pastor. A HBCU graduate of Hampton University in Hampton, VA, she earned a Masters of Divinity degree and Doctor of Ministry degree from Wesley Theological Seminary. She completed clinical work from Georgetown University Medical Center. She was ordained for gospel preaching at Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist Church in Washington, DC.

Dr. Lisa serves as a Chaplain for her Discipleship Group and as Ministry Leader at Alfred Street Baptist Church in Alexandria, VA. She has an Ecclesiastical Endorsement from the American Baptist Home Missions Society for Healthcare Ministries. She is certified in Mental Health First Aid with The National Council of Mental Well-Being. As the Owner of Love With Finesse LLC, she provides businesses and faith communities wellness education through workshops, trainings, and retreats. She is a profound thought leader in bringing love, faith, and mental wellness together. An inspirational speaker, engaging preacher, and acclaimed author who strives to bring hope through the grace of Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the presence of the Holy Spirit. (2 Corinthians 13:14), In 2023, her published book "Love with Finesse" became a top new seller on Amazon inspiring readers to embark on a healing and well-being journey for personal and professional development.

You are invited to: Follow & Like her on Facebook, Instagram, & Linked-In.
Subscribe to her Podcast: "Live More. Stress Less"

www.LoveWithFinesse.com